ABOUT

Country girl is a UK based brand owned by Global Beauti. Country girl offers premium quality beauty products providing value for money to quality conscious customers. Country Girl is fashionable, competitive and stands out from contemporary brands because of quality, presentation and professionalism.

Country girl is offering a wide range of beauty care products and implements made from highest quality of material, safe packaging, stylish and above all a life time guarantee. It is an evolutionary concept for beauty implements, where products are developed keeping end users in mind. Country girl believes that the quality of a product is a key to customer loyalty. Therefore each product is fully compliant to international quality standards.

Country girl offers a range of products used for pedicure, manicure, eyes and face for all basic beauty and grooming needs. The products in this range are carefully selected with the help of beauticians and experts keeping in mind the precision expected by customers. All products are themed and inspired by English country side floral patterns and European art with pastel effect and colours giving the feeling of beauty and serenity.

Country Girl range is available from our online shop, amazon, ebay, salon and spa groups, and various online retailers. For trade and OEM queries please contact us via email.
